

Barry Eccleston

Key Achievements:

- Currently Executive Vice President of Fairchild Aerospace Corporation. Responsible for all Sales, Marketing and Customer Support of all products, including the bringing to market of Fairchild's new family of Regional Jets, with a current sales backlog of $8.5 billion.
- As CEO of a major aerospace collaborative program (International Aero Engines), was responsible for all aspects of the V2500 engine program, with sales of approximately $2 billion per year, and support of 60 customers worldwide
- As CEO of Rolls-Royce Canada Industries, Inc., was responsible for all of Rolls-Royce's businesses under The Canadian holding company, totaling approximately $500 million turnover per year. This included 8 facilities in Canada, Mexico and the USA involved in Aircraft, Space. Missiles, Aeroengine, Power Generation and Transmission, and overhaul businesses.
- As Senior Vice President of Marketing at Rolls-Royce, Inc., achieved sales of new aero engines averaging over $1 billion per year to major US customers including American, US Air, UPS and TWA.

Career:

1999—Today	Exec VP Sales Marketing & Support, Fairchild Aerospace, San Antonio
1998—1999	Sr VP Business Development Fairchild Aerospace Corp., San Antonio
1994—1998	President & CEO, International Aero Engines, Connecticut
1993—1994	President & CEO, Rolls-Royce Industries Canada, Inc., Toronto
1988—1992	Sr VP, Rolls Royce, Inc., Virginia
1984—1988	Asst VP, then VP International Aero Engines, Connecticut
1979—1983	Marketing Manager, Rolls-Royce, England
1975—1979	Senior Liaison Engineer, Rolls-Royce, Tokyo
1973—1975	Sales Manager, Rolls-Royce, England
1970—1973	Flight Test Engineer, Rolls-Royce, England

Professional Qualifications:

Bachelors Degree with Honors in Aeronautical Engineering, Loughborough, England 1969
Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society, London, England
Chartered Engineer, London, England

Personal:

DOD: February 28, 1947
Married with 1 son and 1 daughter

Recreational:

Member of Wings Club, New York
Private Pilot
Golf